

Things I Thought I Knew

A criminal law mixer and storytelling event.

Criminal law practitioners from across Vermont will share stories about their preconceived notions of the criminal legal system—and how their practice transformed (or reinforced) those ideas

Think The Moth, but with prosecutors and defense attorneys.

Sushi, beer, wine, and non-alcoholic beverages will be served.

April 25 / 6:00 pm
Vermont Law and Graduate School,
Yates Common Room

For more information please contact:
KellyJohnson@vermontlaw.edu

RSVP:

